

Another Spring

Sammy Davis, Jr.

Another spring
Is on the way
Another April
Another May
And every flower
Is gonna blossom
And every blossom
In time, will flower

There will be birds
In every tree
And they'll be songbirds
Believe you me
There'll be no warning
But one fine morning
You'll wake and see
Another spring

Another spring
Is on its way
Another April
Another May
And every flower
Is gonna blossom
And every blossom
In time, will flower

Don't you know, there will be birds
In every little tree
There's gonna be some songbirds
Believe you me
There will be no warning
But one fine morning
You'll wake and see
Another spring!
There will be no warning
But one fine morning
You'll open your eyes and see
Another spring!
