

No One Can Live Forever

Sammy Davis, Jr.

No one can live forever
But I'll love you as long as I live
No one can tell what the years may unfold
But you'll be my one love to have and to hold

I'd give you a million tomorrows
If they were but mine to give
No one can live forever
But I'll love you as long as I live

No one can live forever
But I'll love you as long as I live
No one can tell what the years may unfold
But you'll be my one love to have and to hold

I'd give you a million tomorrows
If they were but mine to give
No one can live forever
But I'll love you as long as I live
