

Amnesty Is Granted

Sammy Hagar

Love's an hourglass
Goes out wide, comes in closer
Time ticks away, it drips away
Leaving empty, sanded shoulders
But who said that love would last forever?
I'm growing tired of feeling like I do

All those simple little secrets
Have come between us
And they're pushing me away
And I feel comfort in the distance

And you said that love would last forever
I'm growing tired of feeling like I do
Oh, yeah
And there's a time, there's a place
A change of heart, about face
It's about love, it's about forgiveness
It's about our destiny

Tell me now, tell me like it is
No one has to give, amnesty is granted
And what's done is done for everyone
Come on, baby, I want to start again
Right now, amnesty is granted

And I think a lot
Yeah, I've been thinking a lot
I've been thinking about you, baby
Lord knows I've been thinking a lot

I've been thinking love should last forever
Been growing tired of feeling like I do
Oh, yeah
A change of heart, about face
It's about love, it's about forgiveness
It's about our destiny, oh

Tell me now, tell me like it is
'Cause no one has to give, amnesty is granted
And what's done is done for everyone
Come on, baby, I want to start again
Right now, amnesty is granted
Come on, amnesty is granted
Oh, baby, come on, amnesty is granted, yeah