

Open

Sammy Hagar

Start with your eyes closed
Let green and red shadows
Start drifting you downstream
Just open up your eyes and you'll be there

Listening so closely
To every sound you see inside your mind

(I swear)
Open up your arms and you'll be there
(I swear)
Open up your eyes and you'll be there
(I swear)
Open up your eyes and you'll be there
(I swear)
Open up your heart, I'll take you there

And there on your shoulders
Your guide starts to whispering
Some new things, some old dreams
Some strange things so quietly to hear

Watch for a stranger
Some unsuspecting messenger appears

(I swear)
Open up your arms and you'll be there
(I swear)
If you open up your eyes and you'll be there
(I swear)
Just open up your mind and you'll be there
(I swear)
Open up your heart, I'll take you there

Open up your mind
Open up your dreams
Open up your world, open
Open up your eyes, open, open
Open up your mind, open, open
Open up

(I swear)
Open up your arms and you'll be there
(I swear)
When you open up your eyes, you'll be there
(I swear)
You can open up your mind and you'll be there
(I swear)
When you open up your heart, I'll take you there

Open up
