

Follow Me Like The Moon

Sammy Rae & The Friends

It's getting late
And now the moon is rising
And I can't stop looking at it
Can't stop thinking about it
Can't set it straight
No no I just can't place it
And no I can't erase it

And I can't stop thinking about it

Oh what a scene
When you can't seem to say what you mean
Oh what a shame
When you've only got yourself to blame

And I try to shake it off
And then I try to sleep it off
But you still follow me like the moon
And you still follow me like the moon
And then I try to shake it off
And then I try to sleep it off
But you still follow me like the moon
And you still follow me like the moon

Hayayayayaya...

It's getting late
It's been a real hard fall
Trying to forget it all
And I can't stop thinking about it
Gotta clear my plate
I'm trying to break the habit
That I'm right back at it
And I can't stop thinking about it

Oh what a scene
When you can't seem to say what you mean
Oh what a shame
When you've only got yourself to blame

And I try to shake it off
And then I try to sleep it off
But you still follow me like the moon
And you still follow me like the moon
And then I try to shake it off
And then I try to sleep it off
But you still follow me like the moon
And you still follow me like the moon

Hayayayayaya

Making the hairs on the back of my neck stand up
And it's a little more than lust but a little bit less than love
Feels bad when it's unrequited
Feels bad to not feel invited

And I try to shake it off

And then I try to sleep it off
But you still follow me like the moon,
And you still follow me like the moon.
And then I try to shake it off
And then I try to sleep it off
But you still follow me like the moon,
And you still follow me like the moon.

And I try to shake it off
And then I try to sleep it off
But you still follow me like the moon
And you still follow me like the moon
And then I try to shake it off
And then I try to sleep it off
But you still follow me like the moon
And you still follow me like the moon

Hayayaya

And I try to shake it off
And then I try to sleep it off
But you still follow me like the moon,
And you still follow me like the moon.
And then I try to shake it off
And then I try to sleep it off
But you still follow me like the moon
And you still follow me like the moon
