

Black Girl Magik

Sampa the Great

Abracadabra here I come
Magic carpet styling
Proof Black Magik excellence
Poof you need reminding
Gaining ground and losing some
Ooh! my word she back again
You will never end the reign
We keep multiplying
Running through the evidence
There's just no denying
Something 'bout magnificence
It just keep on shining
Ohh! that lady got some lip
From my Mom I got the gift
We just pour some peace in it
Least we keep on trying

Nooo
Hold on my youth
Hold on my youth
I told you I was coming
I gave you forewarning
Forewarned is forearmed

Hold on my youth
Hold on my youth
I told you I was coming
I gave you forewarning
Now I can't stand your black girl magik
I can feel it in the air
It's so strong is like a magnet
You would think that God is here
I can't stand your Black Girl Magik
I can feel it in the air
It's so strong it's like a magnet
You would think that God is here

Yemaya told me in a dream I was conscious
No I was not woke I was live in a concert
And I spread my voice I was choked and belittled
Then I resurrected part two as the sequel
No I'm not your voice I just wanna be equal
Gotta stand tall we the ones we the people
Look me in the eyes this the cards you've been dealt
I don't need your table I can sit by myself
Poof
Then let's take it back again
Back back to Africa
Matriarchy is a fact
Black women per capita
Aye aye captain
You remain my queen
I saw it in my mother when I saw it in a dream
Holy Spirit
Hoe, is she?
You disrespect the womb
Where life all come from and it is to whom

You're praises due or your race is doomed
Eat pussy like the last supper then kudos to you

Nah
Hold on my youth
I told you I was coming
I gave you forewarning
Nah

Hold on my youth
Hold on my youth
I told you I was coming
I gave you forewarning
I can feel it in the air
I can feel it in the air
It's so strong it's like a magnet

And God is here
God is here
God is her
And God is here
