Heaven
Heaven
Heaven
Heaven
Heaven

Have I told you 'bout the time where I almost died?
Almost tried to fit in with the new tribe
Really I never been the one to have my head heavy set
But these days, I feel Heaven sent
Wavy maybe, uh
How did time go speed up?
Childhood bedroom, straight to your speakers
Speak up, not sayin' wrong notes don't heat up
But perfection not a real trait of a healer
I feel all pressure for the next summer hill
So strict on the dress code still
I ain't even had a chance for a growth spurt
Feel y'all stiff neck spittin' on my homework, chill
And I woke up from my death, less of a care to impress
'Cause uh, inner peace be the new success
I looked up to the sky 'cause I figured I'm blessed
Hands on my chest got me singin' out
'Cause yes, I see

Heaven
Heaven
(Is it real? Is it real? I see?)
Heaven
Heaven
(I feel ya, I feel ya, I see)
Heaven
Heaven
(Is it real? I see)
Heaven
Heaven

Yeah, nah, nah
Too sure it means somethin'
Death to all the wakin', mean muggin' in the mornin'
What I thought was the end result
Told me all the things the end was not about, yeah
I came into this space by myself
Lucky chillin' at the pearly gates for some help
And when I finally march my soul off to the beat
I wonder if I'm takin' everything that made me lose sleep, nah
We sell peace but it's months to Easter
That's the beast, if you missed Eve, I'm with her
Born again and you can quote me
What I thought would move me last year, don't even warm me
Almost cracked under the pressure
Diamonds shiny, shiny, new plaques out in Mecca
'Cause inner peace be the new success
And I guess 'cause I figured I'm blessed
'Cause I
Breath before death
Breath before death

Breath before death
Breath before death

Heaven
Heaven
(I'm tryna get there)
Heaven
Heaven
(Heaven)
Heaven
Heaven
Heaven
Heaven
(Yeah, I'm tryna go there)
