

I'm not scared of you leaving me, I'll watch you as you go
I have no fear of loneliness, it's all I've ever known
And I'm not gonna fight you for love you don't have
The time we spent together was the best I've ever had

I loved you wrong and now you're gone
And now you're gone
I loved you wrong and now you're gone
And now you're gone (Now you're gone)

I'm not gonna lie to you and say you're ruining my whole life
I'm just gonna forget about
All the times you said you could be my wife
The last time I held you, it hurt to let go
All I can say is you're the best friend I've ever known

I loved you wrong and now you're gone
And now you're gone
I loved you wrong and now you're gone
And now you're gone (Now you're gone)

I thought you'd fix me and you did the best you can
But who am I to rely on you to turn me into a man?

I loved you wrong and now you're gone
And now you're gone
I loved you wrong and now you're gone
And now you're gone (Now you're gone)
I loved you wrong and now you're gone
And now you're gone
I loved you wrong and now you're gone
And now you're gone
