

You're the worst best friend that I've ever had
You don't reciprocate a thing I do, it makes me sad
When you comment on my pictures saying I'm the best
Yet it only makes me second guess

I sent you a message but you never replied
I guess you got something better on your mind
I sent you a message but you never replied
I guess you went and cut me off this time

And i know that you will do anything that you wanna do
Yeah im gonna fade from you like a temporary tattoo

You only call me up when your heart is a wreck
For some superficial reason that you made in your head

You love so easy you would never confess
So you'll create a little drama instead

I sent you a message but you never replied
I guess you got something better on your mind
I sent you a message but you never replied
I guess you went and cut me off this time

And i know that you will do anything that you wanna do
Yeah im gonna fade from you like a temporary tattoo

And i know that you will do anything that you wanna do
Yeah im gonna fade from you like a temporary tattoo

And i know that you will do anything that you wanna do
Yeah im gonna fade from you like a temporary tattoo
