

One Percent

San Cisco

My phone's on one percent
But there's plenty of things I wish I said
So tonight I'm coming 'round to talk it out again
Feeling like you left me on read
And I've made plenty of stories up in my head
But tonight, we're gonna talk it out again

If we're thinking the same thing tell me
What are we fighting for?
Everything we need's right here but
We're still looking for more

Oh, outta love
Outta lust
Outta time
Outta trust
Baby, I feel like I'm giving up
Oh, when you call on me
Like I've got what you need
But I can never get you enough
Yeah, I can never get you enough
I can never get you enough

We've been holding on to what we should be
Let's let go of shit like that
'Cause this ain't a movie
But it sure feels like the final act
Let's talk about the real reasons
Tell me everything we need to change
Or maybe we're too broken hearted
To be glued back together again

Oh, outta love
Outta lust
Outta time
Outta trust
Baby, I feel like I'm giving up
Oh, when you call on me
Like I've got what you need
But I can never get you enough
Yeah, I can never get you enough
I can never get you enough

In the deep end darling
But we'll find our own way out
And you'll find someone to love you
Better than I ever knew how

Oh, outta love
Outta lust
Outta time
Outta trust
Baby, I feel like I'm giving up
Oh, when you call on me
Like I've got what you need
But I can never get you enough

Oh, outta love
Outta lust
Outta time
Outta trust
Baby, I feel like I'm giving up
Oh, when you call on me
Like I've got what you need
But I can never get you enough

Yeah, I can never get you enough
Yeah, I can never get you enough
I can never get you enough
