

These are just the bones
Telling me what everyone knows
We are not alone in love
If i could take you home
The bodies tell the rest of the story
Maybe we'd resolve ourselves

Honey you should know
There's two of me at play
One will turn to go
And one will turn away
And I know we've got decisions to make
Hoping it will go my way

These are just the bones
Telling me what everyone knows
We are not alone in love
If I could take you home
The bodies tell the rest of the story
Maybe we'd resolve ourselves

Little blonde ghost
Its a dangerous place
Don't you know a home
Is just another cage
I am letting go
And I am sedate
But I am not amazed

These are just the bones
Telling me what everyone knows
We are not alone in love
If i could take you home
The bodies tell the rest of the story
Maybe we'd resolve ourselves
