

Can't Forget You

San Holo

I'm shifting my mind to get around you
Still hiding from the truth, it's getting old
I'm shifting my mind, no I can't save you
I've changed my point of view, appointed for the truth

Can't forget you, can't forget you you you
Can't forget you, can't forget you you you
Can't forget you, can't forget you you you
Can't forget you, can't forget you you you

I'm drifting around to get a chance to Believe my mind is changing on at all
I've changed my point of view to find out all the truth
My thoughts are clearing up, but no I don't

Can't forget you, can't forget you you you
Can't forget you, can't forget you you you
Can't forget you, can't forget you you you
Can't forget you, can't forget you you you
