

TINY FLOWERS

San Holo

Hey, gloomy day
Will you ever just go away?
I sit and wait
But the clouds are here to stay

Sometimes I can't even see the sunlight
On a shiny day

Listen to the silence in the noise
Think about the beauty in the world
Tiny flowers on the side of the road
If you're feeling small, you're not alone
Not alone

Dear rainy day
Can you put a smile on my face?
Time slips away
Yet I think about yesterday

Sometimes I can't even feel the sunlight
But I'll be okay (okay okay)

We've been here for a while
Sunlight used to make me smile
I know life has ups and downs
Let me rise above these clouds

Listen to the silence in the noise
Think about the beauty in the world
Tiny flowers on the side of the road
If you're feeling small, you're not alone
Not alone

Not alone
Not alone

Listen to the silence in the noise
Think about the beauty in the world
Tiny flowers on the side of the road
If you're feeling small, you're not alone
Not alone
