Sanctus Real

It's hard to believe this is just the beginning
You're still on the move
How could I fathom a love never ending
You've shown me it's true

You overwhelm the things that overwhelm me
When there is too much to hold
You break the darkness that has tried to break me
I'm not afraid anymore
Cause You are

Always above and beyond what I think I'm deserving of Jesus You are
Always enough for me just when I think I've seen
All Your love
Somehow there's always more

Your work in me is forever unfolding
Beyond what I know
Bringing me mercies anew every morning
Awakening hope

You overwhelm the things that overwhelm me
When there is too much to hold
You break the darkness that has tried to break me
I'm not afraid anymore
Cause You are

Always above and beyond what I think I'm deserving of Jesus You are
Always enough for me just when I think I've seen
All Your love
Somehow there's always more

Your limitless love
Goes on and on
On and on

Your limitless love
Goes on and on
On and on

Your limitless love
Goes on and on
On and on

Your limitless love
Goes on and on

Cause You are always above and beyond what I think I'm deserving of Jesus You are
Always enough for me just when I think I've seen
All Your love
Somehow there's always more
Somehow there's always more
Somehow there's always more
