

Birds Still Dance

Sandi Patty

Morning
Praise the morning
Sunlight from heaven
Fills me
Mine is the new day that breaks
God's in His heaven
And everything's right in His world
Nature rejoice
Yes and the birds still dance

Singing with elation
Voices in chorus
Are ringing
Sweetness is filling the air
Joy overflowing just knowing
That God is still there
Nature rejoice
Yes and the birds still dance

Sweetness is filling the air
Joy overflowing just knowing
That God is still there

Lord of all creation
Take my life
And give me the freedom to mount up
With eagles on high

Whisper my devotion
Father, Creator
Hear me
Mine is the new day that breaks
Yours is the power and glory
Forever amen
Peace in my soul
Yes and the birds still dance
Peace in my soul
Yes and the birds still
Birds still dance
