

Step Into the Joy

Sandi Patty

They were lost and alone, wandering far from home
The children of Israel were afraid
And even though they tried, the river was just too wide
There was no way of crossing so they prayed
Lord would make a way, He would grant their request
He said step into the water and let Me do the rest
Step into the joy, step into the promise
Step into the place where you belong
Step into the joy, step into His goodness
Step up, step out, step into the joy
(Step into the joy)
Here's your choice, I'm clear, paralyzed by fear
You can stand on the promises you've heard
Freedom's yours today, just a step away
You will find it when you take Him at His word
When you trust the Father He will show you what is best
You just take that step of faith and He'll do the rest
Step into the joy, step into the promise
Step into the place where you belong
Step into the joy, step into His goodness
Step up, step out, step into the joy, oh
(Step into the joy)
Your miracle is waiting, you can make a brand new start
It's a brand new day, let Him change your heart
Step into the, ooh, come on now
Step on, step on, step on in, step into the joy
Step on, step on, step on in, step into the joy
Step into the joy, step into the promise
Step into the place where you belong
Step into the joy, step into His goodness
Step up, step out, step into the joy, oh
(Step into the joy)
