

Fall At Your Feet

Sandi Thom

Tonight
This hotel room is my grave
So I close my eyes
May the Lord take me away

Yes, I did believe in love
And I, did believe in you

But you let me down
Yeah you dragged me down
Into the darkness
The great abyss
Where the dead arrive, you said
Fading away
Lonely, helpless
How could you leave me there?
Oh leave me there?
Just to fall at your feet
You knew I'd fall at your feet

Eastern skies
The risin' of the dawn
And the cold through the nights
Like a winter that stayed here too long

Well you let me down
You dragged me down
And the roots of the trees
They crumble like bones
The wide open seas

And it won't make a sound
As it sinks underground
I'll be thinkin' of you
Were you thinkin' of me?
Then I'll fall, yeah
At your feet

You knew I'd fall
At your feet
