

Saorsa

Sandi Thom

Tell me, what do you see
When you let your mind go free
Cast all your fears aside
Just for a little while
Come and dance with me

Oh I see sparks
I feel the blood rush to your heart
I think I'm comin' alive again
Walzin' with the pain
And dancin' in the rain

But I don't know why
Well I don't know why it hurts you
Your broken heart and pieces on the ground
No more blue skies
Let the rain come fallin' down

Livin' like you might die today
The violins of life, they play
Some will bring you back to me again, oh
I pray upon a desert sky
If we never laugh then we'll never cry, oh

We'll go dancin' in the rain

We'll go dancin' in the rain
We'll go dancin' in the rain
We'll go dancin' in the rain

Dancing in the rain
