

Tightrope

Sandi Thom

Deep down I feel a darkness
I cannot explain
Why do I feel so lost and lonely?
I'm so ashamed
Am I losing control?
I can't cope anymore
Maybe a stronger woman can
But I've got to pull through
All I want is for you
To be proud of who I am

And Lord, don't let me fall

Cause there's a way down
So pray for us
The high was so dangerous
And holding you
Is my only hope
Walking the tightrope

So scared, don't know where to begin
This fear has settled in
Tell me
Couple of weeks and it will finally fade
So why am I still so afraid?
But you're all that I see
Your lights guiding me
Every time I start to cry
Hanging on by a thread
When the doubts fills my head
Can I make it to the other side?

And Lord, don't let me fall

Cause there's a way down
So pray for us
The high was so dangerous
And holding you
Is my only hope
Walking the tightrope

There ain't no easy way out
Ohhh
So be brave

Because there's a way down
So pray for us
The high was so dangerous
And holding you
Is my only hope
Walking the tightrope
Walking the tightrope
