

Warpaint

Sandi Thom

Please turn the light on
It's so dark in here
Been still for hours
But it feels like years
And all that I want is
To hold him close to me
When does the sunrise?
What will become of me?

I'm losing my mind
I'm locked away
Thinking about all I gave so selflessly
And all I have is the beat of my heart
To count the hours that we've spent apart

For you
For you
For you
For you

I was the warrior
I was your leader
You tried to break me down
Jealous deceivers
But you don't know my faith
No you don't know my heart
There is a strength in me
You'll never tear apart

I gave all I had
I gave it away
I let tomorrow become yesterday
When all the hope
Had faded away
There was no sacrifice I wouldn't make

For you
For you
For you
For you

For you
For you
For you
For you

I was the warrior
I was the leader
You tried to break me down
Jealous deceiver

I was the warrior
I was the leader
You tried to break me down
Jealous deceiver

I was the warrior

I was the leader
You tried to break me down
Jealous deceiver
