

I Don't Owe You Anything

Sandie Shaw

Bought on stolen wine
a nod was the first step you know very well
what was coming next (repeat verse)
did I really walk all this way
just to hear you say
"oh I don't want to go out tonight"
"No, I don't want to go out tonight"

but you will
for you must

I don't owe you anything, no1
but you owe me something So repay me now

you should never go to them let them come to you
just like I do
just like I do

you should not go to them
let them come to you
just like I do
just like I do

did I really walk all this way
just to hear you say
"oh I don't want to go out tonight"
"No, I don't want to go out tonight"

but you will
for you must

I don't owe you anything, no
but you owe me something
So repay me now

Too freely on your lips words prematurely sad
oh but I know what will make you smile tonight

Life is never kind
life is never kind
oh but I know what will make you smile tonight
