

What It Feels Like

Sandro Cavazza

Kept myself busy and made an excuse
Late nights and party, rather than you
From something to nothing out of the blue
Found myself wanting, a life without you

Is that what it feels like?
Is that what it feels like?

Isn't it funny, everything's changed
Now I'm the one calling, you left me wait
You had my heart and fuck how it hurts
Finally I see the tables I've turned

Is that what it feels like?
Is that what it feels like?
If only I knew how
How it would feel like

Tell me only you, only you
Tell me only you, only you
Tell me only you, only you
Tell me only you, only you

And now that I've lost it
I see that I've always been wanting more
And the truth is that with you
I had what I was looking for
We all made our choices
And I can't take it back
Can't get back, can't take back
What I had before

Is that what it feels like?
Is that what it feels like?
If only I knew how
How it would feel like
Is that what it feels like?
Is that what it feels like?
