Cold

(Sandy) Alex G

He's not evil
Just a useless son of the devil
Let's put the Prozac in his mouth
Watch him choke and spit it out
He deserves what he receives, baby
Don't you?

She's a creature
A lover and a teacher
And like a baby on the beach
She let's the water touch her feet
But she will fall back from the tide, baby
Don't you?

So cold
It's so cold
So cold
It's so cold

Let's pretend
That we don't know what happened
And in the end we'll close the door
Like a nonsense metaphor
We will disguise what we ignore
And I'll love you

So cold
It's so cold
So cold
It's so cold
