

Do It

(Sandy) Alex G

She's just a kid in her head
But she knows what you said
And she knows what you said
I know exactly what to do
But I wouldn't do it for you
I wouldn't do do it for you
I remember I went crazy
You should know
Cause you are me
You should know
Cause you are me
This kid's got his fender strat
Cause music's where it's at
But I could choke the little brat

Everybody knows
Yeah, everybody knows it

Our hearts are the holy ghost
That's what I believe most
That what I believe most
If you love him
Then let him go
What a fucking joke
What a fucking joke
Maybe one day
You'll come down
And you'll stick around
And I'll stick around
Stop trying cause
You're not a clown
And I know that's a frown
Yeah, I know that's a frown

Everybody knows
Yeah, everybody knows it
