Skating

(Sandy) Alex G

Somebody was waiting
For you at the skating rink
Last night I hope you know

He's not worth your time
He's the worthless kind

He said he loves your new sweater
And you should get together
And he could take it off of you

He's got two 40s
And his mom's SUV

He wants you to stay
But you won't stay
He wants you to stay
But you won't stay
He wants you to stay
But you won't stay
Will you baby, that's okay
Won't you baby, that's okay

I feel underneath the weather, yeah
I had felt much better before
I started talking to you

You're a waste of time
You're the worthless kind

We were breathing underwater
Your mother and your father
Kept on crying out for you

But we're both too high
And you don't change your mind

We want you to stay but you won't stay
We want you to stay but you won't stay
We want you to stay but you won't stay
Will you baby, that's okay

We want you to stay but you won't stay
We want you to stay but you won't stay
We want you to stay but you won't stay
Will you baby, that's okay
