

Panic Town

Santa Hates You

dance on ruins
feast on decay
the wilder the surge the tastier the prey longing for a suture
all is going too fast
'cause every night the future is swallowed by the past don't you know it's not a rumor don't you know it's going down open your eyes, wake up, my dear:
you're in panic town!
intoxicating racy sights obnoxious twisted games are gonna sex up all your nights destruction has so many names aching for a sunset thirsty for delight like insects trapped in spiderwebs you forgot what's wrong or right you can scream if you want to
it will only hurt a bit come on, you know you want it you know you'll love it!
a thousand ways to trick your brain into happily, happily going insane don't you know why? you wanna know how?
wake up, love: you're in panic town now!
you know you'll love it!
don't you know it's going down
open your eyes, wake up, my dear:
you're in panic town!
don't you know why? you wanna know how?
wake up, love: you're in panic town now!
you know you'll love it!
don't you know why? you wanna know how?
wake up, love: you're in panic town now!
