

Love, Devotion & Surrender

Santana

Listen

If you're tired of walkin' around and getting nowhere
I know, there's a path that's leading towards the Master

Love, devotion and surrender
Love, devotion and surrender
Love, devotion and surrender
Love, devotion and surrender

Oh, brother, listen to the rhythm of your heartbeat
It's keeping time with all the universal children

Love, devotion and surrender
Love, devotion and surrender
Love, devotion and surrender
Love, devotion and surrender

Sister, sing the song created for your brother
Louder, till the heart embraces all the harmony

Love, devotion and surrender
Love, devotion and surrender
Love, devotion and surrender
Love, devotion and surrender
