

Ain't Ready

Santigold

Hey hey yeah yeah yeah yeah
Hey hey yeah yeah yeah yeah
Hey hey yeah yeah yeah yeah
Hey hey yeah yeah yeah yeah

Hey you're obviously not ready
Got your guard down anyway
Out the door but they aren't ready
I feel for 'em they don't know

All want it yeah, we want what we had
Hey hey it won't never come back
All want it yeah, we want what we had
Hey hey won't never come back

I know those fools boy ain't ready
Still they spill their lies and blame
Call upon your savior heavy
It'll ride you, dash your faith

All want it yeah, we want what we had
Hey hey it won't never come back
All want it yeah, we want what we had
Hey hey wont never come back

Ooh-ooo-hoo
It come in hard
Kick in one side of your heart
What a blow, no it won't stop
So I take my time now getting back up
Taking the reigns
Third eye
Everything I see
Coming to me
Y'all sure not ready
Was letting it play, high and mighty
Not today, no more ya ain't ready

They getting trapped, see them coming both ways
They head strong but I feel my way
Running blind, ego driving these days
I stand still leave 'em to their own maze

Me I find y'all here now fussing wasting our time already, higher
Me I find your ears not working don't hear what the siren saying
Make it big with your buddies on the top floor
We making love beneath it or we all go
Taking you there seeking what we all know
I know I gotta get 'em where it hits home

All want it yeah, we want what we had
Hey hey it won't never come back
All want it yeah, we want what we had
Hey hey won't never come back

Ooh-ooo-hoo
It come in hard

Kick in one side of your heart
What a blow, no it won't stop
So I take my time now getting back up
Taking the reigns
Third eye
Everything I see
Coming to me
Y'all sure not ready
Was letting it play, high and mighty
Not today, no more ya ain't ready

Ooh-ooo-hoo

Kick in one side of your heart
What a blow, no it won't stop
