

Right Brigade

Santigold

You can't disappear anymore
I see your face lurking outside the window
You say you're a trife, I'm a bore
You touch yourself, put your face in the pillow,

But the funny thing about you is,
You remembered to leave it behind.
The funny thing about me is,
I'm a member of the right brigade.

Makes no difference to me what side you choose, what side will lose
All their is to perceive is what I want
And I know how how to get it.

But the funny thing about you is,
You remembered to leave it behind.
The funny thing about me is,
I'm a member of the right brigade.
