Sara Bareilles

It's hard to know when to speak up
So that anyone will hear
To be bold
Or push it down
'Cause what's next just isn't clear

But I want you to know
The time to rise up is
Later, later

Now's not the right time, let's aim for next year
We'll have no fear and maybe by then
The problems got solved by themselves or on their own

Later, later
Later, later
