

Downfall

Sara Evans

I'm a people pleaser
You couldn't give a damn
I'm a true believer
And you're a wanted man
I'm a sucker for trouble
I'm addicted to a heartbreak
And when it all starts going too well
I'm praying for an earthquake

'Cause when it comes to the heart
Is anything true?
Oh baby, right from the start
It's always been you
Oh, it might be a blessing
Or maybe a curse
I'll always be guessing
For better or worse, but it's you
You'll always be my downfall, my downfall

I'm a walking contradiction
It changes on a dime
I never think about you, babe
And I think about you all the time
Well, you might be the death of me
But at least I'll die in love
And if it all goes up in flames
We can never say it wasn't fun

'Cause when it comes to the heart
Is anything true?
Oh baby, right from the start
It's always been you
Well, it might be a blessing
Or maybe a curse
I'll always be guessing
For better or worse, but it's you
You'll always be my downfall, my downfall

'Cause when it comes to the heart
Is anything true?
Oh baby, right from the start
It's always been you
Well, it might be a blessing
It might be a curse
I'll always be guessing
For better or worse, but it's you
You'll always be my downfall

Oh yeah, you, you'll always be my downfall
My downfall
Always be my downfall
Always be my downfall
