Fear for no beat cut, told me, "delete that"
Tossin' my feet wet, I'm being me, yeah
Told me the feedback
You could be the one, you could double what you've done, yeah
Baby girl, you're mine, and I tell you all the time, yeah, yeah, eh
Don't wanna beat that, already seen that
Movie, I keep moving to the beat clap, run to arenas
I know what you make when I work and you get paid, yeah
And I'm still a kid, doesn't that keep you away, yeah

Keep those kids under pressure (Pressure)
They don't know you finesse them

They say I look like Zoe, they say I sound like RiRi
Yeah, they say that they know me
But do you really know me, know me?
They say I look like Zoe, they say I sound like RiRi
Yeah, they say that they know me
But do you really know me, know me?

Keep those kids under pressure
They don't know you finesse them

Man you're looking tired, bags under your eyes, yeah
Tell me who's the talent, someone might need to remind you?
Young enough to write there, old enough to buy back
Wanna be the one to turn your dream into a nightmare

Ha-a-o, a-a-ah, a-a-o, a-a
Burning bridges, starting fires
A-a-o, a-a-o, yeah
Burning bridges starting fires (A-a-o, a-a-o)

They say I look like Zoe, they say I sound like RiRi
Yeah, they say that they know me
But do you really know me, know me?
They say I look like Zoe, they say I sound like RiRi
Yeah, they say that they know me
But do you really know me, know me?

My mum always told me to be myself
So I'm a little confused
Why you tell me to be someone else?
