

Not Done Loving You

Sara Kays

Pray for me
I'll be alone tonight
Without your company
I can't sleep
I'm way too used to having you here
Laying next to me

And I'm so torn up
Can't forget us
And I just want you to know

That I'm happy that you're happy
But I'm sad to be alone
I want you to come back
More than you could ever know
'Cause I'm not done
I'm not done
I'm not
Done
Loving you
Oh you

So if you had the chance
Would you even try
Do you have a reason
And would even rhyme
Me with you
You got a lot of nerve
Not telling me you're moving on
Can't believe what I have heard

And I'm so torn up
Can't forget us
And I just want you to know

That I'm happy that you're happy
But I'm sad to be alone
I want you to come back
More than you could ever know
'Cause I'm not done
I'm not done
I'm not
Done
Loving you
Oh you

I'm not done (Not done)
I'm not done (Not done)
You're all I want tonight
I'm never giving up
I'm not done (Not done)
I'm not done (Not done)
You are the only one
That I have ever loved

And I'm so torn up
Can't forget us

And I just want you to know

That I'm happy that you're happy

But I'm sad to be alone

I want you to come back

More than you could ever know

'Cause I'm not done

I'm not done

I'm not

Done

Loving you

Oh you
