

sleepwalking

Sarah Barrios

Wonder when you see the stars
Do they look like mine
State lines never felt so far
Maybe it hurts less with time

But now that I know what it feels like
To love somebody like you
I'm stuck in a limbo where nothing feels simple Guess all the best things rarely do

You're 6 thousand miles away
And I'm half of a person when you're not around
I'm sleepwalking while I'm awake
Cause part of me's living in somebody else
So I'll love the moon till I see you myself

Darlin', are you counting sheep
Is that your voice that I hear
Street lights castin' shadows on the sheets
I could've sworn you were here

Now that I know what it feels like
To miss somebody like you
It's an unending cycle I'm not built for survival
Guess barely alive will do

You're 6 thousand miles away
And I'm half of a person when you're not around
I'm sleepwalking while I'm awake
Cause part of me's living in somebody else
So I'll love the moon till I see you myself

You're 6 thousand miles away
And I'm half of a person when you're not around
I'm sleepwalking while I'm awake
Cause part of me's living in somebody else
So I'll love the moon till I see you myself

Wonder when you see the stars
Do they look like mine
