

Talk!Talk!Talk!

Sarah Barrios

You hate my face and
You hate my songs
But you're still listening
So guess who looks real dumb

That's you btw

You give opinions
And think you're God
Say I've been sinning
With poison on your tongue

Well it must be nice to be the judge
That no one can touch

Cause all you do is talk talk talk
Wastin your breath on me
You must be hidin from yourself

And all I hear is
Blah blah blah
Cause you're living in hell
Baby best of luck
Here's to growing up

You're no angel
I'm no Saint

We're both people
But no we're not the same

Cause I don't spend all my time
Tryna ruin your day

Cause all you do is talk talk talk
Wastin your breath on me
You must be hidin from yourself

And all I hear is
Blah blah blah
Cause you're living in hell
Baby best of luck
Here's to growing up

Hey!
You're back at it again
Makin somethin outta nothin
Takin shots for fun
It's just not fair
Oh when does it end
I don't know how you sleep at night
When you're fuckin with my life
Stop fucking with my life

Cause all you do is talk talk talk
Wastin your breath on me
You must be hidin from yourself

Cause all you do is talk talk talk
Wastin your breath on me
You must be hidin from yourself

And all I hear is
Blah blah blah
Cause you're living in hell
Baby best of luck
Here's to growing up
