

Follow The Sun

Sarah Blasko

Never wanted it to be that way
I always wanted you to see the sun
Never wanted it to be that way
I always wanted you to see the sun
But she was on the outside fading away from you
And seems that somehow she had finally found the truth
Felt life forever haunted eyes face the floor
Feeling somehow life had been here before
I somehow misunderstood what I should be
And wanted it the way that you'd rescue me
She is on the outside looking on me
She's like the sun I follow, oh
Waiting for the rain again
Watching as the storm begins
Feeling like I've done in times before
This time a thousand lost regrets washed up on this shore
I somehow misunderstood what I should be
And wanted it the way that you'd rescue me
She is on the outside looking on me
She's like the sun I follow, oh
Never wanted it to be that way
I always wanted you to see the sun
Never wanted it to be that way
I always wanted you to see the sun
Never wanted it to be that way
I always wanted you to see the sun
Never wanted it to be that way
I always wanted you to see the sun
So you don't want regressions anymore
I know a way of letting go
'Cause I can't rely on what I've learnt
Yeah, yeah, yeah oh
I somehow misunderstood what I should be
And wanted it the way that you'd rescue me
She is on the outside looking on me
She's like the sun I follow, ooh
She is on the outside looking on me
(Never wanted it to be that way)
(Always wanted you to see the sun)
She's like the sun I follow, oh
(Never wanted it to be that way)
(Always wanted you to see the sun)
She is on the outside looking on me
(Never wanted it to be that way)
(Always wanted you to see the sun)
She's like the sun I follow, ooh
(Never wanted it to be that way)
(Always wanted you to see the sun)
Never wanted it to be that way
