

Rain Like This

Sarah Buxton

You only want me when you want me
You only want it on your terms
I laughed along to make it funny
It didn't matter when it hurt

But now my eyes are finally open
I'm finally gone enough to see
You only want me when you want me
But that isn't how it's gonna be

No, it isn't gonna rain like this for ever
Baby, I could never stay like this forever
Honey, you can keep the house
Cuz it feels so empty now
Say you're never gonna change
As the tears run down my face
But it isn't gonna rain like this forever

And I'm not gonna play a victim
And I'm not gonna scream and shout
I'll share my feelings with my girlfriends
Baby, you can say that I'm just running out

Ya I know that I stayed longer than I should have
And I believed the things you said
Honey, you don't have to feel bad
The clouds are lifting up ahead

It isn't gonna rain like this for ever
Baby, I could never stay like this forever
Honey, you can keep the house
Cuz it feels so empty now
Say you're never gonna change
As the tears run down my face
But it isn't gonna rain like this forever

Tell me that I'm never gonna find anyone better than you
But I've learned that I can't believe anything that you say is the truth

And it isn't gonna rain like this for ever
No, it isn't gonna rain like this for ever
Baby, I could never stay like this forever
Honey, you can keep the house
Cuz it feels so empty now
Say you're never gonna change
As the tears run down my face
But it isn't gonna rain like this forever
