

Wings

Sarah Buxton

Love can be crazy
And magical things it can do
The places that it takes you to
I never thought that it was true
Til you saw me standing
Facing the walls that can't climb
Lifting me up just in time
It's so perfect and divine

You give me wings
So I can fly at least that's how it seems
Like angels do when dancing in the dream
There's no fear or doubt
Up here in the clouds
Cuz you give me wings

I'm only human
And I do the best I can do
Sometimes I fight and I loose
When I can't pull myself through
You do

You give me wings
So I can fly at least that's how it seems
Like angels do when dancing in the dream
There's no fear or doubt
Up here in the clouds
You take me high, higher than the struggles in this life
And where I used to stumble, now I rise
Above it all, like I can never fall
Cuz you give me wings
I'm not an angel but baby understand
When I get around you, I feel like I am
I aint running any longer, your love makes me stronger
Nothing is impossible anymore, anymore

You give me wings
So I can fly at least that's how it seems
Like angels do when dancing in the dream
There's no fear or doubt
Up here in the clouds
You take me high, higher than the struggles in this life
And where I used to stumble, now I rise
Above it all, like I can never fall
Cuz you give me wings
You give me wings
You give me wings
