

Almost

Sarah Close

I don't wanna find us right back in that place again
Close to breaking up, saying we're better off as friends ('Cause who we kidding?)
I could never be your friend
I'd rather not pretend that it's all cool

And now we sit here, joking 'bout the arguments we've had
It's easy to forget how it felt when you're looking back (But don't forget it)
We were lying in your bed
Those words I nearly said, for a second, I (Almost, almost)

Told you, "I'm leaving"
Can you believe it?
For a second, I (Almost, almost)
Got lost in the moment
A little unfocused
For a second, I (Came so close to)

Giving up, walking away
That was such a big mistake
When I almost, almost
Told you, "I'm leaving"
Then I found the reason
But I almost, almost

I'ma treasure all these moments, 'cause this love we need to hold
We must not be fools if we made it out as gold
(And now we're shinin')
On a level so divine
I'll take it as a sign that we're all good

And all I know is, I want you here standing on my team
So, if you're late to meet me, I won't kick off, cause a scene
('Cause it don't matter)
When you've balanced on the edge
You let things go unsaid for a second, I (Almost, almost)

Told you, "I'm leaving"
Can you believe it?
For a second, I (Almost, almost)
Got lost in the moment
A little unfocused
For a second, I (Came so close to)

Giving up, walking away
That was such a big mistake
When I almost, almost
Told you I'm leaving
Then I found the reason
But I almost, almost

And now we're shining (Almost, almost)
And now we're shining (Almost, almost)
And now we're shining (Almost, almost)
But for a second, I almost, almost

Told you, "I'm leaving"
Can you believe it?
For a second, I (Almost, almost)
Got lost in the moment
A little unfocused
For a second, I (Almost, almost)

And now we're shining (Almost, almost)
For a second, I (Almost, almost)
And now we're shining (Almost, almost)
For a second, I (Almost, almost)
