

Beautiful Day To Say Goodbye

Sarah Close

Sun in the sky
It's lovely outside
I hear the birds as they sing
Children are playing
Everything's changing
Their happiness kinda stings

I play you back in my mind
And it's hard not to cry
Memories just aren't the same
Oh and it's so unfitting
How the clouds are all missing
When I'm wishing for rain

This takes the crown by a mile
So I just sit here and smile

Cause at least it's a beautiful day to say goodbye
At least it's a beautiful day to say goodbye
Goodbye

I've been walking all day
My feet and my heart ache
I'm not sure what else to do
And the heath looks so pretty
Yeah, this was our city
But it can't be mine without you

And I struggle to breath
As I hold two ice creams
I'm not ready to order for one
Yeah, all the trees have their leaves
But it's autumn in me
What a shame to be sad in the sun

But at least it's a beautiful day to say goodbye
At least it's a beautiful day to say goodbye
Goodbye
Goodbye

At least it's a beautiful day to say goodbye
At least it's a beautiful day to say goodbye
Goodbye

At least it's a beautiful day to say goodbye
At least it's a beautiful day to say goodbye
Day to say goodbye

'Hello Sarah
This is me
Sending you a message of love'
