

Getting Older

Sarah Close

I was talking to my dad about the year that we've just had
'Cause time, it keeps on passing by and I don't know how to say goodbye

I swear yesterday, I was fifteen
A teenager with hopes and dreams
I'm still the kid I used to be but I've got responsibilities

And I don't know how to make time go slow
I feel the same but all around me, everything's changed
I never see a moment till it's over
I'm too busy trying to grow up
I forgot I'm getting older

(This is Sarah's recording tape
I'll sing you about as many songs I got Here is song number one)

All those laughs I thought were built to last are now more more fragments of my past
It's funny thinking 'bout the ways life could have been if we h adn't changed
Some day, I'll see my parents die
The thought alone, it makes me cry
Now I say I love you twice as much 'cause you never know when t ime is up

And I don't know how to make time go slow
I feel the same but all around me, everything's changed
I never see a moment till it's over
I'm too busy trying to grow up
I'm too busy trying to grow up
I'm too busy trying to grow up
I forgot I'm getting older

(So, I'll be back maybe in a few hours, few minutes Well, I don't know when so bye-bye, see you for now)
