

Ready

Sarah Close

I wasn't over it
I was still underneath the heartbreak
When I met you
I wasn't used to it
I don't think anybody's put me first before
Until I met you

You were everything that I wanted to find
I was too broken to try
We were the right thing but wrong time

You said you could tell I wasn't ready
That all of my pain was way too heavy
Yeah you did the right thing that day when you left me
Cause I would have hurt you if you'd only let me
You said you could tell I wasn't ready
But I am now

I've been trying to find it
Someone who makes me feel the way you made me feel
And I've got close but sometimes I still wonder
If I met you now would it somehow be different
Cause I'm different

You were everything that I wanted to find
I was too broken to try
We were the right thing but wrong time

You said you could tell I wasn't ready
That all of my pain was way too heavy
Yeah you did the right thing that day when you left me
Cause I would have hurt you if you'd only let me
You said you could tell I wasn't ready
You could tell I wasn't ready
You said you could tell I wasn't ready
But I am now
I am now

But I'm not gonna call you
I think it's better than to leave you in the past
And I miss you
But I'd rather miss you
Not that every love is meant to be a love that lasts
