

A Boy Like You

Sarah Darling

Can't put my finger on it
Didn't know what I wanted
Until right now
And I know you don't know me
But something about you told me
To put this paper down

The sun is shining on your face
You look at me I look away

And I haven't got a reason
To feel the way I do
But I, I could fall in love
With a boy like you

There's a dream that I never
Seem to remember
When I wake up
But I think that you might be
The one that I dream
Every night of

Like someone that I've known before
Known a hundred years or more

And I haven't got a reason
To feel the way I do
But I, I could fall in love
With a boy like you
Oh I, I could fall in love
With a boy like you

With your headphones on
Your familiar eyes
And your beat up shoes
You'd never break my heart in two
Would you

You don't know what my name is
Sure be a shame
If you didn't ask
Cause we've just got this moment
To start what I know
Is meant to last

I see a house and family
I see how happy we could be

And I haven't got a reason
To feel the way I do
But I, I could fall in love
Oh I, I could fall in love
With a boy like you
