

Getting Gone

Sarah Darling

One more sunset
Missing you
One more tear I shed
Listening to a sad song
And I'll be getting gone

One more promise
You make halfway
Restless moments they
Leave me waiting too long
I'll be getting gone

It's high time, I chase the northern sky
Let the pine air bring me back to life
How could freedom feel so wrong
If loving you is killing me
Honey I'll be living
Getting gone

If I pack my things up
By the door
Put on a sundress
Waiting on the porch
Would you notice
Me goin', getting gone
Getting gone

Well it's high time, I chase the northern sky
Let the pine air bring me back to life
How could freedom feel so wrong
If loving you is killing me
Honey I'll be living
Getting gone

Well it's high time, I chase the northern sky
Let the pine air bring me back to life
How could freedom feel so wrong
If loving you is killing me
Craving places I can breathe
Honey I'll be living
Getting gone
Getting gone (Getting gone)
