

Rain

Sarah Geronimo

Rain gently falls whenever
We say goodnight
Falling like when your out of sight
Rain follows me even in my bed
And rain is the tears that I shed

There'll be no sunshine in my life
Until you say your mine oh mine
There'll be no summer, spring or fall
Each day is like winter time
But I can never say I care
I know it won't be smart
Somebody owns your heart
It can never be mine

So it rains when your near
Knowing we can't even touch
Rain knows that I love you so much
But I know that my love
Will only cause you pain
So I'd rather live with the rain

There'll be no sunshine in my life
Until you say your mine oh mine
There'll be no summer, spring or fall
Each day is like winter time
But I can never say I care
I know it won't be smart
Somebody owns your heart
It can never be mine

Rain gently falls whenever
We say goodnight
Falling like when your out of sight
Rain follows me even in my bed
And rain is the tears that I shed

There'll be no sunshine in my life
Until you say your mine oh mine
There'll be no summer, spring or fall
Each day is like winter time
But I can never say I care
I know it won't be smart
Somebody owns your heart
It can never be mine

Woaahhohohhhh...

It can never be mine
