Sweetest Mistake

Sarah Geronimo

I woke this morning
With my head up the clouds
I saw the rain falling
As I thought about the time
When you were mine

I thought I saw you smiling Just a few yards away Called out your name but You turned away so fast I Couldn't smile back

You are my sweetest mistake
And I'll never regret that I
Gave you my world
You are my sweetest mistake
And I'll never regret that I
Gave you my world
Even if I'm not your girl
Anymore
