

No Worries

Sarah Jaffe

Ain't no skin off my back, there's nothing to it
I know enough to know enough is enough
When push comes to shove, she goes in for the hug
And says, "No worries, no worries my love"
If you're digging for something that's counterproductive
Seen it before so she calls me on my bluff
Push comes to shove, she goes in for the hug
And says, "No worries, no worries my love"

That's not necessary
You don't need to worry

No worries, no worries, no worries, no worries my love
No worries, no worries, no worries, no worries my love

Keep explaining myself, no room for me to prove it
I build a wall and she blows it all up
When I'm ready to shove she goes in for the hug and says
No worries, no worries my love
She asks how I feel but I don't find it conducive
She asks me again I say all of the above
Push comes to shove she goes in for the hug and says
No worries, no worries my love

That's not necessary
You don't need to worry

No worries, no worries, no worries, no worries my love
No worries, no worries, no worries, no worries my love
