

There is something on your mind
Wire and decided
You will slip away in the night
Going
Turns out you're going on your own
And we will hear the news tomorrow
Through the phone

How can you leave?
When we are still so young?
When we are still babies?
How can you leave?
When we are still so unsure of anything?

There is a glint of you in everything
For a moment I thought I saw you there in passing
What a feeling
There is no love lost
When you stop breathing
I swear I remember everything

Dream world tango
I can reach you in the dark
Ignoring how it is
Indulging what it was
I dream of dancing with the dead
And we walk the cul-de-sac
We talk about the weather, November
And how I should know better
Than to ask you to come back

You say
"Sarah bring me back"
So I try and I pull you closer
We're at the edge of the world
Between you and I
But the dream keeps starting over
You say
"Sarah bring me back"
But my lips, they cannot answer
So we just spin and swing and laugh
Until I wake up and I remember

There is a glint of you in everything
For a moment I thought I saw you there in passing
What a feeling
There is no love lost
When you stop breathing
I swear I remember everything
