

Starling

Sarah Kinsley

Ways away from yesterday
And the life we divined
I cannot leave the table behind
Can I keep it in my mind?

We are face to face with a love of the ages
And my my my
I do not know if this heart of mine
Is enough to take it

If love is only meant
For lovers in bed
You'd better wait until we're done
Baby we will never be as young
As the wild ones chasing the sun
Through the seams of the night

And he says we're the lucky ones
Yes we are
To find another in the sky
Smiling in the dark
Laughing at the fucking stars
And she says we're the lucky ones
And you know why
To meet another is a miracle
Let alone you and I
You and I
You and I

Safe to say that life has changed
And it's too late to try
Fighting things that are divined
It's in the wind it's in your eyes
Don't break it

Baby love it comes like a fire
Fool me once, fool me desire
We could never be those girls again
If we tried

Put your hand and swear
We'll be fine
If we're still here at 45
If you don't marry someone
Then neither will I
Say you'll be mine

And he says we're the lucky ones
Yes we are
To find another in the sky
Smiling in the dark
Laughing at the fucking stars
And she says we're the lucky ones
And you know why
To meet another is a miracle
Let alone you and I
You and I

You and I