

Endless Sadness

Sarah Klang

Endless sadness over you
I feel helpless when you cry
Do you see yourself in me
When you look into my eyes?

They're blue like summer oceans
Grey like windy rain
Sleeping in the sunrise
Angel halo just the same

There's so much I want to tell you
I don't think I ever will
Are we cursed with sadness?
Is it growing from within?

You said we have this hole inside
But I don't know if I do
I felt sick for a while
'Cause you told me to

They're blue like summer oceans
Grey like windy rain
Sleeping in the sunrise
Angel halo just the same

Endless sadness over you
I feel helpless when you cry
Do you see yourself in me
When you look into my eyes?

Endless sadness over you
